LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

Registrar of Companies.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 17888.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Newcastle Ship Building Co., Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 21st day of May, 1942.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of ten dollars each.

The address of its registered office is Suite 4, Van Houten Building, 16 Commercial Street, Nanaimo, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To build, construct, hire, purchase, repair, alter, sell, charter, or otherwise deal with and dispose of ships, vessels, tugs, lighters, barges, scows, and other craft of any kind, and to establish and maintain lines or regular services of steamships or other vessels, excluding lines of steam or other ships operating to any point outside, or extending beyond the limits, of the Province of British Columbia or between the Province of British Columbia and any other British or foreign country, and generally to carry on the business of ship-builders and ship-repairers, and to enter into contracts for the carriage of mails, passengers, and goods, and either by its own vessels or by the vessels or conveyances of others; to carry on the business of merchandise carriers, ship-owners, warehousemen, wharfingers, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to carry on the business of sawmill proprietors and lumber-manufacturers, iron-founders, and manufacturers of all kinds of tools, machinery, and plant, and to carry on the business of tool-makers, brass-founders, metal-workers, boiler-makers, millwrights, iron and steel builders, smelters, and wood-workers, painters, bridge-builders, electricians, machinists, and repairers of internal-combustion and other engines:

(b.) To construct, purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and work any shipyard, wharf, pier or piers, docks, buildings, or works capable of being advantageously used in connection with the business of the Company as ship-builders, ship-repairers, ship-owners, or as a shipping company:

(c.) To manufacture, build, construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to deal in, hold, sell, mortgage, or otherwise encumber, all equipment, furniture, tackle, stores, and paraphernalia of every kind and nature appertaining to the building, use, and equipping of ships, vessels, motor-boats, barges, scows, and other watercraft:

(d.) To carry on the business, either as principal or agent, of salvage and jobbing, and of buyers and sellers, importers and exporters, and manufacturers, either upon commission, assignment, or otherwise, both wholesale and retail, of goods, wares, products, and merchandise of any kind and nature whatsoever, and also the business of shipping and forwarding agents, freight contractors, manufacturers' agents, and customs-brokers:

(e.) To build, fit out and repair, and lend money upon ships and vessels of every description, and on goods and merchandise carried or to be carried in any ships or vessels:

(f.) To acquire, either by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, any improved or unimproved lands of any tenure, kind, or description, including, without limiting the generality thereof, lands covered by water, foreshore leases, timber leases, berths, and rights to cut timber, and any estate, or interest in real property, and to lease, sell, exchange, or mortgage, or otherwise deal with or encumber any of such lands or interest therein:

(f.) (1.) To buy, lease, build, construct, or otherwise acquire and use shipyards, dock-yards, dry-docks, and places of all kinds and descriptions where ships and vessels, barges, lighters, and watercraft of all kinds are built, constructed, repaired, or otherwise dealt with, and to sell and dispose of the same, and to mortgage, charge, and in any manner encumber any interest of the Company therein:

(g.) To buy or otherwise acquire ships and vessels, complete or not complete, sound or out of repair, for the purpose of improving, reselling, letting out to hire, or otherwise making profit out of the same:

(h.) To construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, logging-railways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, foreshore leases, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interest, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(i.) To construct, maintain, improve, and operate booms and any other works for collecting, driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and for all purposes directed to the reception, safe-keeping, carriage, and delivery of timber, logs, shingle-bolts, pulp-wood, lumber, and any other products of timber and wood:

(j.) To manufacture, buy, sell, import, export, exchange, and generally deal in all kinds of marine engines, engine parts, accessories and appliances, gasoline, distillate, fuel-oil and lubricants, and to carry on the business in all its branches of a ship-chandler:

(k.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land and buildings and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to hold, use, improve, sell, assign, mortgage, exchange, rent, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(l.) To acquire, register, and use any brands, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks, or privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in part at any time or times:

(m.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any company, society, partnership, or person carrying on any part of the business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or in shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares:

(n.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, licences, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(o.) To avail itself of and have, hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" and any amendment thereof, and any and all other laws pertaining to the appropriation and use of waters for any and all purposes whatsoever:

(p.) To raise or borrow or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by mortgage, bonds, or debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including uncalled capital:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, issue, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner and in such securities as may from time to time be determined by the directors:

(s.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to hold shares or stock in any other company or companies:

(t.) To guarantee the performance of any contract by any person, partnership, or corporation having dealings with the Company or with whom the Company proposes to have dealings, and to pledge the assets of the Company as security for the performance of such contract:

(u.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transactions which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business transactions capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company:

(v.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(w.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to this Company:

(x.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(y.) To distribute among the members in specie any of the property or assets of the Company:

(z.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all the expenses of and incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing and selling, or assisting to place or sell, any of the shares of the Company's capital stock or any debentures or other securities of the Company:

(aa.) To register or license the Company in any other part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(bb.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.
